

Transferring from Outside Michigan

The Michigan Transfer Network course equivalency data only includes information about Michigan colleges and universities. If you are transferring from an institution outside of Michigan, contact the institution to which you plan to transfer.

Find Colleges and Universities >

Explore Institutions in Michigan

Michigan is home to over 70 community colleges, public universities, and independent colleges and universities. Learn more about Michigan institutions of higher education.

Colleges & Universities >

Plan Your Transfer to Michigan

Planning your transfer is an important step toward earning your degree. Before transferring to an institution in Michigan, begin to plan to transfer. There are several resources on this site that will help you plan.

Plan Your Transfer >